

Shambhala Mountain Center Augmentation Planning

The Shambhala Mountain Center (SMC) is a 600-person resort near Red Feather Lakes in Larimer County, Colorado. WWE and legal counsel for SMC obtained an augmentation plan for the center that defined the historic consumptive use associated with lands that had been acquired by the center. This work was conducted by WWE staff and involved developing a thorough understanding of the irrigation structures that were used historically to irrigate the parcels.
